BATTLE ABBEY IS OPENED FOR

Confederate Memorial Institute at Richmond to Be Kept Open for Inspection During Reunion of Soldiers of South

IN MEMORY OF THE PART SOUTH PLAYED

Great Events of War to Be Commemorated in Carvings and Paintings in Beautiful Buildings -Great Historie Collection

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] Confederate Memorial Institute; MGHTY BATTLE Innown as the Battle Abbey, has been opened for inspection in connection with the United Confederate Veterans' reunion, which is to be held here June 1 to 3: The institute forms an interesting part of the collection of permanent memorials of the civil war, its promoters having had in mind the memorializing of the part played by the south in the great war events of fifty years ago.

The building, completion of which awaits the return of the artist Charles Roffbauer, from the European war, stands in the western part of Richmond, in the center of a fiveacre park, a gift from the state of Virginia. Ground for the structure was broken January L. 1912, and the cornerstone was laid the following The building is located on a raised terrace, a broad flight of stone

The structure, which is faced throughout with Indiana limestone, consists of a central pavillon, with a wing on each side, the total length to the terrace level to the ton of the parapet being 44 feet.
